NOTE.—The words of this Song were written by my mother, Helen Agnes Thompson. They were found in her bible written by her in lead pencil. A young lady Missionary, Miss Fanny Misener, induced me to set them to music. This was the first song I ever published. Miss Misener died in South America. The chorus words are chiselled on my mothers tomb stone in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto.—Gordon V. Thompson.

HEART SONGS

Heart Songs are somewhat longer and more elaborate than the Life Songs, but still possessing the same originality of treatment that has made these songs so popular. Just the thing for singing or playing at Church or Home.

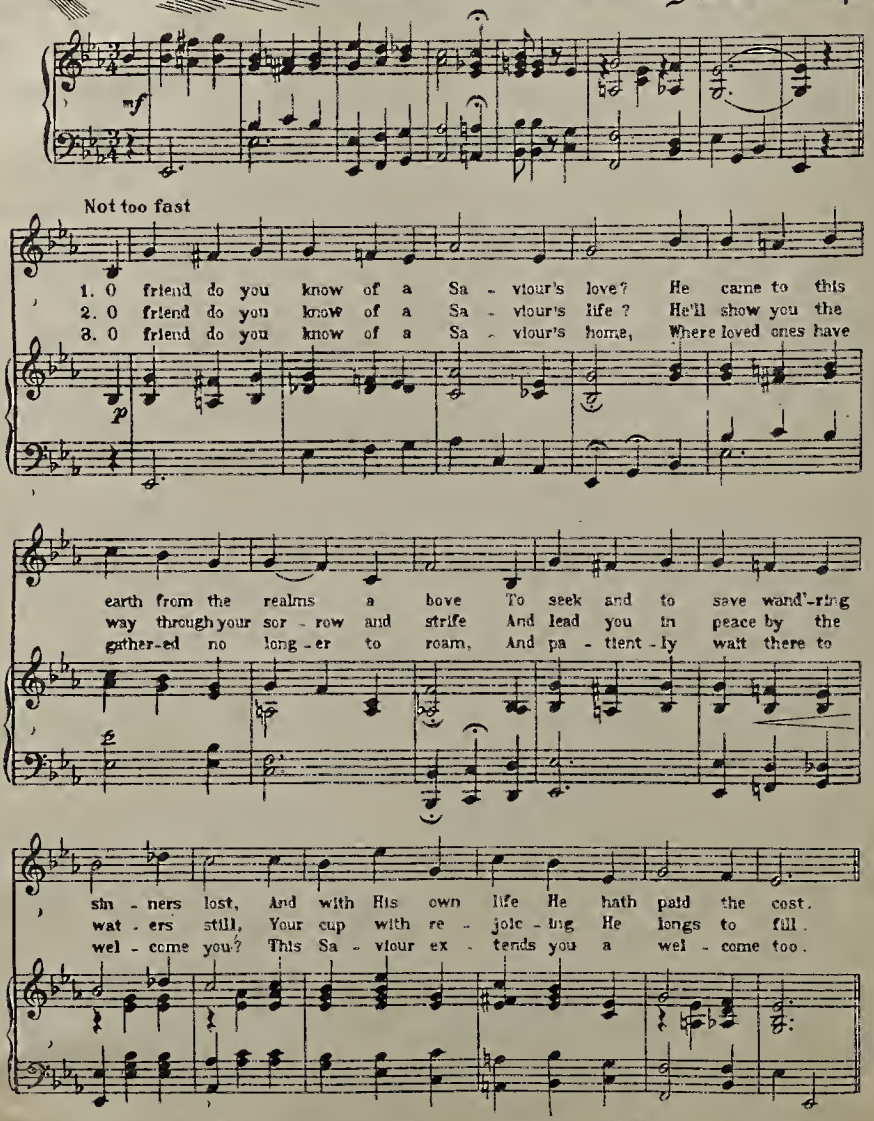

1. Upward
2. Song of Peace
3. When the Clouds have Rolled Away
4. A Song of Home
5. When the Angel of Death Shall Call

These Songs were formerly sold in sheet music form at 25c. per copy. The entire set may now be had in one folio at the same price you paid for the Life Song Folio. Buy them where you bought this.

SOMEBODY

By Gordon V. Thompson

PIANO

SOLO or DUET

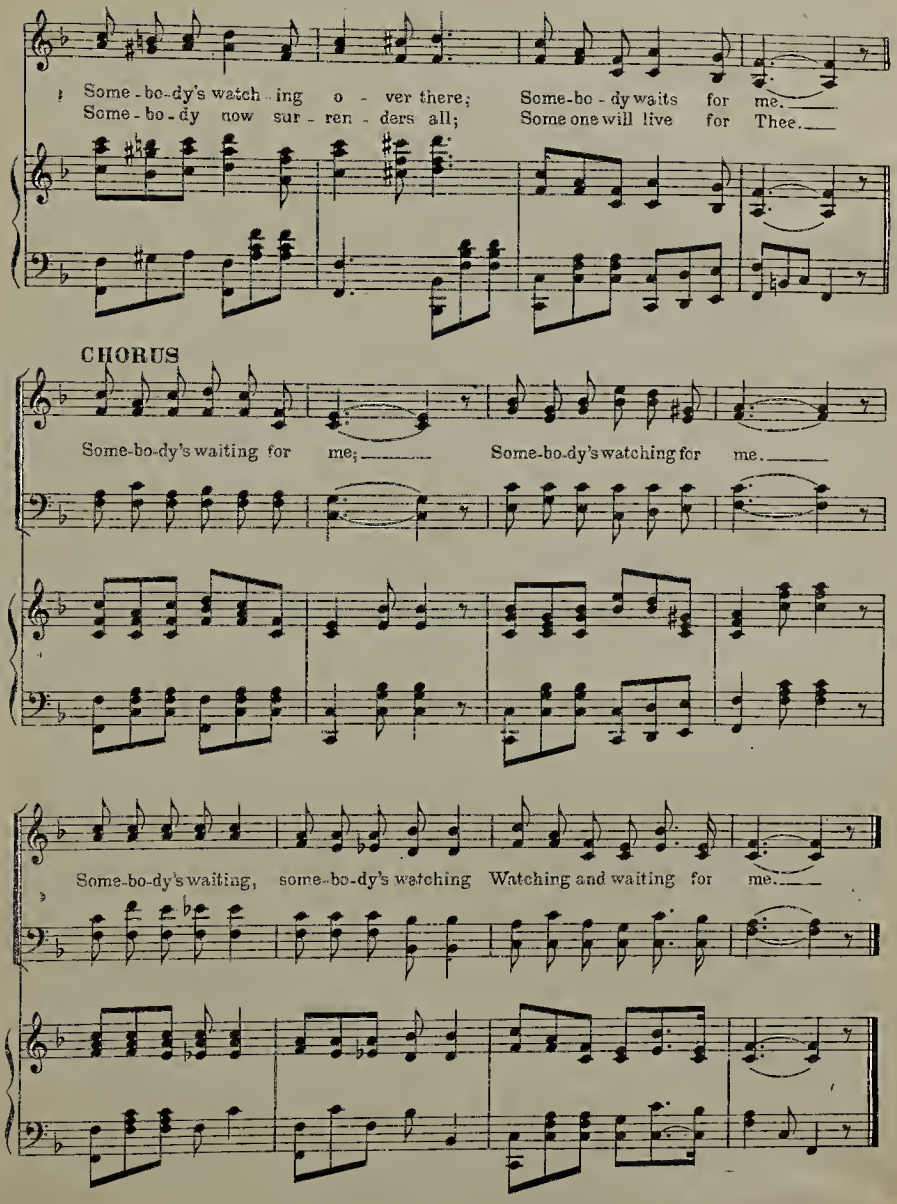

Some-bo-dy lov'd me long a-go, Some-bo-dy cared for me,
Some-bo-dy lov'd me long a-go, Some-bo-dy died for me,

Some-bo-dy prayed for me I know; Some-body's face I see.
Some-bo-dy died that I might know Par-don so full, so free.

Some-bo-dy's now on heav-ens shore, Some-bo-dy cross'd the sea.
Some-bo-dy now has heard the call "Come, weary one, to me."

Some-bo-dy's watch-ing o-ver there; Some-bo-dy waits for me.
Some-bo-dy now sur-ren-ders all; Some one will live for Thee.
CHORUS
Some-bo-dy's waiting for me; Some-bo-dy's watching for me.
Some-bo-dy's waiting, some-bo-dy's watching Watching and waiting for me.
